Tomcats Get New Cooler Super Deal, "you just can't say no"

Windsor -AP- In the NHL, once the season is done, the General Managers do their exit interviews, give nutrition talks to their players and set out work outs for all the players for the off season. They then review the year, to determine what had occurred, what was lacking and where they need to go for the upcoming season. Then they start thinking about the entry draft and then free agency and maybe even make a trade or two.

President and CEO of Windsor Tomcats is very happy with the purchase of a new 87 can cooler that holds ice up to five days. "Sure the New York Rangers got Brad Richards, but the Tomcats got a new cooler with wheels". Jaworiwsky said.

Tomcat Memorabilia Stolen Taken off the Wall at Purples

Windsor -AP- There is a first time for everything. With that, a piece of Tomcat memorabilia was stolen from Purples Bar and Grill. According the bar owners, Mo and Jerry, the 2010-11 full Windsor Tomcat team photo was stolen off the wall at Purples. "Jerry hung the picture, after it was given to him, he hung it the next day, when I came in the day after, the picture had been stolen right off the wall". Mo had said, somewhat surprised and distraught. The Windsor Tomcats have replaced the picture, with the cost being absorbed by the Windsor Tomcat organization. "It is unfortunate circumstance that has occurred, but we are lucky that it was the most recent photo stolen and that photo can be easily replaced. If a photo from, 2000 was taken, it would be more difficult to replace" Indicated Louis Koenigsberger, summer spokes person for the Windsor Tomcats.

"My question, if I was a police officer", stated Jingles Kuprowski would be, why were previous pictures not stolen, who was in this year's picture that that was not in previous pictures?" Kuprowski had asked, no one particular.

That is a great question, because, the thief was perhaps looking for a picture of only that one particular person, and did not care about the others, and the years before.

One of the most handsomest of the new Tomcats comes to mind, Doc Brewin, reddish hair, sheepish smile. Then there is hockey stand out, Dave Crawford any number of hot chicks would want to grab that picture (and his ass) and of course hockey memorabilia collectors too.

What about Mathew Youssef...hummm...there was the Spanish Matador convention at Casino Windsor, perhaps some adoring Matador's took it.

The rest of the squad were regulars, in pictures before.

Then there is one hypothesis that is being flown around out there, "Maybe it was the easiest picture to steal, not secured very well on the wall". Indicated Killer Colasanti.

Perhaps...a case for Colombo...and Peter Faulk just passed away...hummm coincidence?

"We will be asking that the new picture be better affixed to the wall", indicated summer Tomcat Spokesperson Louis Koneigsberger and then continued "If they need help with that I can help, as I do drywall and know a few things about screwing". Koneigsberger concluded with a helpful smile. A new picture hangs, but it is not the original!

COOLER

As for Windsor Tomcat's President and CEO Steve Jaworiwsky, it is not that much different, except for the exit interviews and nutrition talks and of course the draft. "I think exit interviews would be awesome", Jaworiwsky says with a chuckle and then adds, "and giving all the Tomcats a list of do's and don'ts when it comes to food and beverages, ha!, I would break the rules on what not to eat on the very first day off". Jaworiwsky says, and continues, "But there are some similarities, I do look at the past season and see what needs to be address in the off season, for the upcoming season,".

Thus the 'no new players' outcome, as pointed out in the Summer Issue St. Felix.

Jaworiwsky observed one glaring problem and addressed it in the off season, no not another Dave Crawford signing, "I noticed that we needed two coolers on some nights, so I went out and bought a 87 can cooler, with wheels". Jaworiwsky stated.

Stefan Jaworiwsky was very happy with the purchase, it was a regular $80 cooler on sale for $50, but when you bought it, Canadian Tire gave you a $20 dollar gift card on that item, so the $80 dollar cooler only came to $30, "Now that is one hell of a deal, in my books" stated Jaworiwsky, and added, "and we can use the gift card for balls, which we buy at Canadian Tire anyway, so it is a win-win for everyone". Jaworiwsky concludes.

It is not a super deal on a free agent signing, but the Tomcats will take a new cooler that holds more beer, because really, is there anything better then more beer?

Super Fierce Action as Spotted below, starts back up at 6:30 p.m., September 20, 2011.

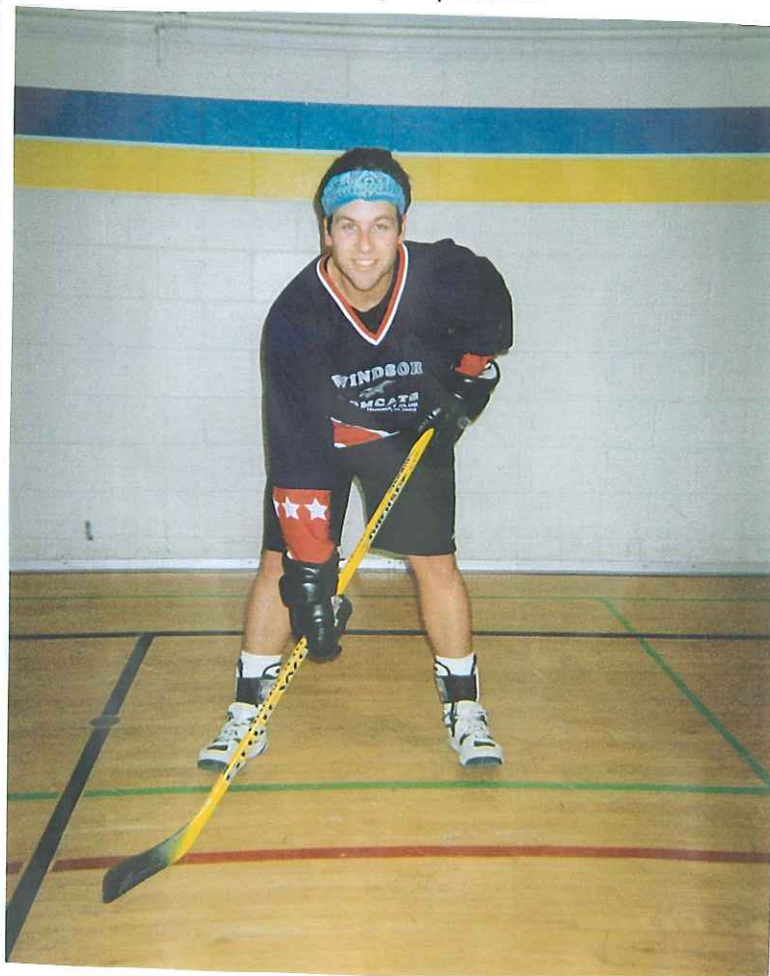

If you are unable to start the season, due to injury, evening classes, baby sitting, please let Stevo know right away!

Kuprowski Ready 4 Season New Ideas, Fresh 'On Time' Thinking

Windsor -AP- During the season, Kevin Kuprowski does all the right things, he drafts well in the NHL Tomcat Hockey Pools, he brings beer, 'just because' (when it not even his turn). He does not allow anyone to push him around anymore and he can shoot the ball and put it in the top shelf just like the best of them. One thing he is not very good at, is showing up on time.

"I have commitments that I cannot really get out off, I teach swimming and i try to get there, when I can" Kuprowski says. This year a funny thing happened on the way to the Kapusta Kow, "I was asked to be on the advisory board, I thought it was quite an honour, Stevo approached me and said he liked the initiative I showed when the I organized the hockey bags and he asked me to come to the meeting, it was an eye opener, I got to see the inside workings of the Tomcats and it impressed me". Kuprowski concluded.

(He was late for the meeting by the way) Impressed Kuprowski so much, that he has some new ideas for the Tomcats this coming season, and will he be on time on Tuesday nights? "ummm, probably not, but I will get there as soon as I can and of course I will bring beer on a 'just because' basis" Kuprowski says, smiling that famous smile of his. Tomcats will take that, no problem.

Kevin 'Jingles' Kuprowski, "I have some new ideas for this year, but I can't let the cat out of the Tomcat Hockey bag, just yet". Kuprowski says.

The 2010-2011 Full Tomcat Team picture 3 (similar to the ones below), was stolen from the Tomcat Wall at Purples Bar and Grill. Anyone with information, that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the parties responsible, is asked to call Purples.

Youngblood to have Hernia Surgery Lost for Start of the Season

Windsor Ontario Canada -AP- Bob McKenzie of TSN reported it first, but it is true, star forward of the Windsor Tomcats #87 is to undergo Hernia surgery in the very near future, which will mean he will miss the start of the Tomcat Hockey season.

"We will miss his talents both on the floor and in the dressing room, he has a way to him that even the older guys respect", stated Junior Poisson. The surgery will not be performed at the old Grace Hospital site as originally reported by TSN, it will be completed at either Met or Hotel Dieu, a spokesperson for the Tomcats indicated.
