

New Sheriff In Town Say Hi to May Day Lelyk

Windsor -AP- On October 13, 2011, the Windsor Tomcats announced Nick Lelyk as the new Minister of Fines/ Suspensions & Grievous Acts and also named him as the Acting Director of Player Development. "I think I bring a great deal to the table, I don't want to see chippy play and if I think someone gets wacked and it was dangerous I will call them out on it and fine them. NHL hopes to stop head shots, I hope to stop the high sticks and the very unnecessary wacking that goes on" Lelyk had said, he also added "I would like to see all the fines paid in MGD, but I am willing to let it slide". Lelyk had stated. Lelyk's post is a one year secondment.

"Boys, May Day will be watching and will be giving you a fine, if you do not hold respect for the other players. He will also do random stick checks, so make sure they are either Junior or intermediate. He is a fair man, but just know there is a new Sheriff in town and his name is Sheriff May Day Lelyk". Vice President Mykel Jaworiwsky had said.

Last Night Of Hockey will be on Tuesday December 20, 2011 and we start back up on January 10, 2012

Tomcats Buy A Jump Drive Rolling Along to 21st Century

Windsor -AP- The Windsor Tomcats have purchased their first ever jump drive. It is an 8 gigger and was $9.99. "We needed something like this very badly, to hold our pictures and other items" Indicated IT Lead Andy Morgan, "We will be able to hold hundreds and hundreds of pictures on the zip drive, from one tournament to the next. Stevo no longer needs to hold paper pictures in envelopes like he use to. This is definitely a great purchase" Morgan concluded.

Christmas Party Approaching

Have a D.D. Do not Drink and Drive

Kapustak Kow Palace -AP- December 20 is the date for the Christmas Party this year. Tomcats supply the beer and rye and you pay ten dollars for pizza. Not worth taking a chance and drinking and driving that night, make sure you make arrangements for a designated driver. Andy Morgan will be making arrangements for pizza this year. If anyone has an idea, please let hi m know.

Steven Jaworiwsky Not Happy With His Balls

Local Canadian Tire Store -AP- Steven Jaworiwsky has been buying the balls for hockey for the past 21 years and his latest batch does not impress him, so he plans to use the Canadian Tire Bonus Card that he got, when he bought the 87 can Tomcat Cooler, to buy some new balls. "The new balls seem too soft, they stick to the floor and that makes for a poor game", Jaworiwsky had said and then added "I am going to look for a slightly harder ball, that should improve things," he concluded.

This is a $20 gift card that the Tomcat got, when a cooler was purchased in the summer.

Carte

Card

Thank you for your purchase! Use this card on your next visit to Canadian Tire (see details on reverse).
Merci d'avoir achete! Utilisez cette carte lors de votre prochaine visite chez Canadian Tire (détails à l'endos).

Tomcats Looking For Favourite Moments

By Steven Jaworiwsky

The picture below was taken, in around 1995. Those folks around me, some you may recognize, most you won't were the Tomcats of 1995 and would come out faithfully on Tuesday night, just as you do now. This picture was taken at our year end summer BBQ-Pool party (now replaced by the very popular Tomcat Golf outing) I love this picture and it comes in as a favourite Tomcat moment. Look at me sitting there like I own the place (Actually I did, as it was taken in my backyard), but I look content. I look like every thing is all right. I do look like a Don or something. Guys around the table, starting with the fellow in the yellow, (I will go from left to right) you all know, Bulldog Meloche, I gave Bulldog his nickname 23 years ago and I'm glad I did. I don't even remember his first name, to tell you the truth. Then the guy in the cowboy hat is Johnny 'The Mayor' Matuiska, he is not well these days, and my prayers are always with him. Sitting is Miami DiCaire, he would slide to block shots and standing just above him is Bunny Levesque, the Frenchman from Quebec as Johnny would always say. The it's 'Big Al' Bourque and his brother, the George Harrison look alike is seated. The golf hat is worn by Bobby 'The Legend' SKoretz, you see him at the Christmas Party, he signs a few autographs, has a few beers and is always a fun guy to be with. Beside him, is Rex Albert, a onetime Captain of the Tomcats. Then standing is Roger 'Bruiser' Durocher, Dave 'Hurricane' Hann you know, Nick 'May Day' Lelyk is hiding behind there with sunglasses and a ball cap and in the striped shirt is Dan 'the Sea Lion' Connolly, then in the first WindsorTomcat tee shirt ever, John 'Bundura' Lechicky and me, in my purple shirt. That is 14 guys and 4 are still playing.

1993, some Windsor Tomcats at the Tomcat year end BBQ and Pool Party.

TEN QUESTIONS WITH THE TOMCATS

Interviewing: DECEMBER TOMCAT - SNOWPANTS

By Mike Oxsmall.....Cabo Mexico CP:

Birthday

"10/13 baby – Same day as the Red Rocker".

1. Favorite Tomcat?

"Used to be Jaworiwsky but now – Hands down – Fucking May Day all the way".

2. Best job ever?

"Blow – haha – just kidding -Without question – Opening and closing the windows at hockey. I love playing with that long rod. And now the escort service".

Rock or Rap?

"Rock but back in the day, Disco was a close second".

3. Favorite Artist?

"Sammy Freaking Hagar dude. You kidding me? But I also like Gino Vanelli"

4. Favorite beverage?

"Cabo Tequila".

5. Favorite sexual position?

"Missionary. I was raised Catholic".

6. Favorite food?

"Pizza – Martello's".

7. MMA or WWE?

"WWE – My hero growing up was Hulk Hogan".

8. What would you like to do after you retire from hockey?

"I would like to go fulltime with my Escort business. Razor is going to be the Mayor of Windsor so that is not an option, and Lechicky will be his right hand man".

Bonus Question

Blonde or brunette?

"Brazilian".

There you have it. A little more insight in the exciting life of Snowpants.

Learn the Words....so I Don't have to sing Alone By Steven Jaworiwsky

It's a harmless fight/beer drinking song, does not have the F bomb, or the C word, it is a song, you might even hear on Sesame Street, so please learn the words, so I do not have to sing it alone.

Tomcats Forever, Tomcats Forever, Tomcats Forever, we'll falter never, up your poop shoot, in your vagina, nothing is finer, Tomcats Forever!

Here is the latest from the Tomcat Insider Tonight, also known as TIT:

Steve-O and Hollywood were spotted at the annual Ukrainian Festival this weekend trying out traditional food from the Motherland. When someone asked silver-haired Steve-O if the bulge in his butt was because he was wearing Depends, Steve-O responded, " No, I think I shit out 2 cabbage rolls without even chewing them."

The Cada Crescent twins, Doc and Cro, held a charity yard sale to raise money for ugly hookers who are struggling to make a living. When asked how much money they had raised, Doc was heard to say " Everytime we make a buck or two, Cro spends it on the hookers." Condom sales were said to be brisk.

Lovie, Husky Eyes and Soupy were seen as minor celebrities at the opening of a new BP gas station in Sarnia. While Soupy and Husky Eyes were busy signing autographs, Lovie was concerned about how the station would deal with a possible gas spill. Little late for that, isn't it Lovie?

Jingle and Shamus attended the wedding of the century of Kate Middleton and Prince William. When asked what they bought as a wedding gift, jingles sheepishly replied " We got them personalized Tomcat bags, but they weren't ready on time for the wedding."

TIT was at the ground breaking ceremony for the new Windsor Drug Rehab Centre when they spotted none other than Chevy and Hurricane in the audience. When asked why they were there, Hurricane was heard to say, " Drugs are drugs and we need new clients to make our quota."

Junior and Spinner were spotted at the Windsor Bachelorette Charity Ball. Apparently, Junior flashed hit tats and received a record $1200 bid for a night of serious romance. Unfortunately, the bid was submitted by Spinner. Word on the street is, Junior was last seen running down the road crying hysterically.

The Rake and Killer were Parade Marshalls for the grand opening of Killer's six new, mini-cucumber greenhouses. TIT and the local paparazzi were on hand trying to spot celebrities. There were none.

Youngblood, Bulldog and Bearcat emceed a Trailer Park Boys fan club Re-union in a trailer park in Halifax. When asked how the trip was, Youngblood was seen rubbing his blood-shot eyes saying, "We're in Halifax??"

Falcon, Skippy and Razor were in Harrow as special guests at the Ducks Unlimited Dinner. When asked why they were there, falcon said " We thought it was a PUCKS Unlimited Dinner."

Cribs and Sparky were spotted at Casino Windsor watching the Blondie concert. When TIT interviewed them to ask why they were there, they said " We don't think she's a real Blondie. " they later found out, that they were right.

Rocky and Sylvester Stallone attended the grand opening of their new fitness club " Rocky and Rocky". When asked by TIT why he chose Stallone as a partner, Chad replied " Slys career needed a boost and a Tomcat affiliation has put him back into Hollywood's "B" class of actors. When Stallone was interviewed, he replied " Yo."

None other than Swiffer poster-child, Snowpants was spotted going to church this past Sunday. When asked by an usher what was sticking out of his back pocket, Snowpants replied " Just a few fireworks to liven up the sermon. I was going to use them at a funeral this afternoon, but I thought that might be inappropriate." Look for a story on Snowpants on the next edition of the Windsor Evening News.