Ken Cribley, seen here flying through the air will now be flying as the new Director of Officiating .

Lots of Help for Tomcats

Jaworiwsky Prepares for Departure

Kapusta Kow Palace- AP- If you look at the list of the 28 names , 22 have a portfolio, including newly created Portfolio Position, Ken Cribley has become the new Director of Officiating. "It is an important position now more so than ever, with mini tournaments. I wanted someone in place who would be in charge. Make sure there are refs in place, make sure they are calling the game properly and are serious about it". Stated Stefan Jaworiwsky

There have been no issues, but with more Mini tournaments then ever before, the competition gets fierce and with fierce competition you are going to get chippyness, pushing and some 'fighting for space' and the League is looking at Cribley to hold the refs responsible and have them have 100 % total control of all the games. "I would like to see Cribz talk to the refs before they ref each game and just remind them to follow the play and keep a close eye on the ball. And maybe not to ask the guy on stage who was talking and not looking when the 'supposed' goal had gone in" Indicated Vice President Mykel Jaworiwsky.

"I'm honoured and I will do my best as the Director of Officiating.....and.." Ken Cribley said, then could not continue on as he started to cry uncontrollably.

"Lots of happy emotions, with the new position." stated" Darek Kowalczykowski who sits beside Cribley on stage.

Nick Lelyk will continue in his role as Director of Suspensions and Grievous Acts. .

"It's not a cool position like I have, 'Minister of pyrotechnics, Heating and Cooling and Floors, but it is an important one." stated Snowpants Ferranti.

It should be noted, that all refs, that have reffed have done a great job, the Tomcat organization just wants the best product to be delivered by all refs and for all refs to take it seriously and know that their call can effect a game. It can also effect how that team that he effects, sleeps at night.

There are 33 players interested in playing in this year's tournament. We were looking for 32, so we have one extra, but anything can still happen by draft day January 31 and the actual tournament February 25, 2012. One notable absentee is Soupy Salaris, who cannot commit at this time. We will go, with 33 and possibly 34, two teams may have extra players.

N/A; not eligible on the defending Champion team.

"Veggies on a Pizza?"... The Turk

The Turk not happy with the pizza toppings....

There was a bit of an uproar when the Pizza arrived at the Tomcat Christmas Party, "I don't think there was a pepperoni to be had" indicated May Day Lelyk, "The Turk was not happy" Lelyk concluded.

Thus the change in the Minister of Pizza office, "No, Young Andy Morgan is not being relieved of his duties, we are bringing in the Pizza Master George 'the Turk' Metulynsky to help the young Kid reestablish himself" Stefan Jaworiwsky had said and added, "This is more of retraining issue and we will get Youngblood the training he needs to succeed. He is too valuable of a member to be removed from his position. Look at Doc Brewin, he dropped the ball one night by not filling the beer cooler properly, did we get rid of him? We wanted to, but we didn't we just had Sparky Renaud help t he kid out and everything seems to be back on track" Jaworiwsky had said.

Yuri Metulynsky when he saw the veggie pizza, "no more, this must stop!"

So starting with the next pizza order, which will be the tournament, Metulynsky will be handling the order and Youngblood will be observing and learning.

"I promised Fuzzy, we will go with Fuzzy's pizza for The tournament order, so the Turk will work his Pizza magic, as the Pizza Master through Fuzzy" Jaworiwsky had said.

What can the Tomcats expect come Tournament Pizza time? "I can tell one thing" Metulynsky said, with his nostril flaring up, "there will be no fucking veggie pizza". I said this before and I will say it again, if I want veggies, I'll order a fucking salad". Metulynsky concluded.

This is a learning experience for Youngblood, maybe he was cocky, maybe his wife influenced him the in pizza selection, but we know the kid will learn and only get better.

"This is what you get from the NDP, veggie Pizza" indicated Lovie.

Metulynsky with his protégé Andy Morgan, "I want to teach the kid about pizza, as I am the Pizza Master", The Turk had Said

Windsor Driver Thrown Through Glass Door By Nick 'May Day' Lelyk

WINDSOR, Ont. — Police are investigating after a pizza delivery driver was thrown through the glass door of a church hall in the city. Apparently, a hockey Christmas Party became unruly when 65 veggie party size pizzas were delivered.

The world renowned hockey team, the Windsor Tomcats were throwing their annual Christmas bash in the Tomcat Room located in a secret location in the Kapusta Kow Palace. In total 30 arrests were made for Disturbing the Peace and property damage charges are pending. The pizza delivery man was clearly shaken after a group of players surrounded the man and were screaming, "Where the fk is the pepperoni"?

Veteran player Turk, who owns and operates the Tomcat Room was asked for a statement but e-mails and phone calls were not returned.

Team president Stevo indicated that he may suspend the entire team for the travel ball hockey game against the Skip Jacks.
