

Tomcats In Holding Pattern at 27....but

Windsor-AP- So you no doubt have heard that Ellery 'Beep' Oickle has been relegated to a part time – part time player. A new promotion in the corporate world, has him traveling 5 days a week and one of those days happen to be a Tuesday. Windsor is still his home base, so we may see him once in a while. "I plan to play a couple of times in the first part of the year and I am in for the tournament for sure". Oickle said, holding back tears, then added, "And this year, I hope to get into the full Tomcat team photooooooo". He concluded, letting out the biggest cry any Tomcat has ever let out. We also know that Franchise player David Crawford is only a part time-part time player too. That is two super stars not in the lineup. Darek 'Zaba' Kowalczykowski has been placed on the IR to start off the season but could return possibly sometime in early November.

So who else is out and part time?

Dean 'Bearcat' Meloche is trying to get back from an injury and will try to get some playing time in. Vince Vlaminck aka, La Bamba, is a full timer, but can only come out on a part time basis, as well as Killer Colasanti, Nick Lelyk, Shane 'Skippy' Renaud and Danny Mesman. That leaves Ray MacDonell and Mike Menzel handling the goaltending full time Defensively Koeneigsberger, Renaud, Comartin, Poisson, Cribley, Metulynsky and Michael Jaworiwsky will be the defenders. Forward wise, Mike Edgar is back and will play as much as he can. Other full time forwards include, Doc Brewin, Chevy Szcwczuk,

Steven Jaworiwsky, Dave Dzibela, Bulldog Meloche, Kevin Kuprowski, Sunny Salaris, Snowpants Ferranti, Hurricane Hann, Matty 'the Matador' Youssef, Soupy Salaris and new comer Aaron 'Chico' White.

So, subtract the part time guys, and you have around 22 guys.

In order to have a night of hockey, on a Tuesday night you need four guys on and a goalie. Two teams, that makes 10 guys. Put three spares a side, that gives you 16 guys. It is possible that 6 guys could cancel, from the 22 full time players that the Tomcats have and that means that there should be fewer Mini Tournaments this year. "It looks like that, but you never know". Indicates Louis Koengisberger, "Guys love the Tomcats so much that they really want to come out and have fun, we may still see some Mini's this year. Now what about part time Tomcats? There are three in that category. Ogie Costa, who is not available as he is coaching hockey on Tuesday nights, so really he has been relegated to Tournament player only. That leaves Nick 'Flintstone' Wilson, who has a bad knee and net minder, Rob 'The Danish' Daniesh. The latter two may get some playing time in, but it is unknown how much.

So right now, as it stands, the Tomcats may 'showcase' a player or two for the upcoming February tournament, but don't expect to see any real new faces in the line up just because Beep and Crow are part time.

Natalie Bernard Hiring

Windsor –AP- The Windsor Tomcats announced yesterday that they have hired Natalie 'Serta' Bernard as their new Public Relations Director. Bernard comes with a Masters in Marketing and Public Relations from the University of Southern California. She also had her own Sports Show on California Cable, called, 'Serta Speaks'.

"This is an incredibly fantastic opportunity for me, one that I can't wait to start at. When people talk about 'dream jobs', well this is one of them, to be involved with the Windsor Tomcat organization, means everything to me." Bernard had said, beaming, from her California home.

Bernard is expected to begin her job sometime in October. Tomcats wanted to have someone in place at the start of the season, but wanted to hire the best person for the job. Other applicants, that Bernard beat out, were rumoured to be Kate Upton, Jessica Anderson, Larissa Reis, Marzia Prince and Allen Iverson.

Kowalczykowski Out on I.R.

Windsor -AP- The original thought out of training camp was that Darek 'Zaba' Kowalczykowski would be in the lineup by Mid October but now, the medical staff is advising that the Polish Defender has had a set back with his knee injury and that a December date is more likely. "We were hoping to have him in the line up sooner, than later, but that has not worked out for us" Indicated Head Coach Dan Connelly, then added, "some of the other defenseman will need to play more of the minutes in order to pick up some of the time that Darek would have been playing".

Darek Kowalczykowski had a stellar year in 2012 winning the Stanley's Cup with the Lelyk Marauders and then last year, playing in the final, only to lose to the Chevy Sharks.

"Zaba is missed both on the floor and on the stage, he taught me a great deal about this game and how to play it, I hope he gets into the line up soon" Indicated Ken 'Cribzie' Cribley.

Kowalczykowski indicated that no matter how his knee feels he will participate in this year's Tomcat Tournament to be held on Saturday February 23, 2014.

"He loves playing in that tournament and having a chance to win another Stanleys' Cup" indicated Michael Jaworiwsky, "He is like a brother to me" Jaworiwsky added.

Ex Tomcat Bernie Glabb Passes away of Cancer

Windsor-Ap- Bernie Glabb wore 99 very proudly on his Windsor Tomcat Varsity jacket and always liked a tussle on the Kapusta Kow Floor. Bernie was a fun loving guy and enjoyed having a beer on stage after and having a few laughs with Dan Connelly and the boys. Bernie is the second Windsor Tomcat to pass away. Peter Reddem, who played several Tuesday nights at the Kapusta Kow Palace was the first. Bernie will no doubt pop in, every once in a while to watch the Tomcats play on a Tuesday night. Rest in Peace, Bernie, 'The Berninator' Glabb.
