Tournament Schedule

- Jingles (yellow) Vs. Stevo (Green)
- Lovie (White) Vs. Snowpants (Black)
- Stevo Vs. Lovie
- Snowpants Vs. Jingles
- Stevo Vs. Snowpants
- Lovie Vs. Jingles

This is the same schedule that has been used, since Jesus was a Cowboy. The organizers know, that two teams get extra home games and that one team (in this case, team D, Snowpant's team, has a back to back game.....Lovie's, is a back to back game too, but there is a full Tomcat team picture between the second and third game, so there is additional time to rest) The organizers know it is not the perfect schedule, but short of playing a 12 game schedule, going to 4 pm, this is the best that they can do...and even a 12 game schedule would not be perfect, as you would have the same thing happen.

"I am really looking forward to this year's tournament, it is always a great deal of fun. I believe this is my 11th year, I have not missed one and do not plan to miss any for years to come. Where else, except for the Kapusta Kow Palace, will you find greater guys then the Tomcats on a cold February Saturday. Tomcats Forever, Tournament Forever".

SPANKY MAKES RETURN TO THE TOMCATS

ORIGINATOR OF THE NAME, THE KAPUSTA KOW PALACE

If you ever wanted to meet the nicest guy around, funny, charming and witty, well, you do not have to go further than Billy 'Spanky' Meeke. A Stanley's cup winner in 1994 with the Windsor Mets, Billy Meeke has contributed a great deal to the Windsor Tomcats. He coined the name of St. Vlad's the 'Kapusta Kow Palace', which is used to this day. The St. Felix Header, you see in this St. Felix was done up by Spanky way back when and two of the funniest St. Felix's ever, were produced by no one other than Billy 'Spanky' Meeke.

Other members of the 1994 Windsor Mets included team Captain, George Metulynsky, (active playing member, best known for his famous quote, "if you want veggies on your pizza, order a fucking salad") Roger Durocher, Bob Skoretz (who once again came to the Tomcat Christmas Party on December 17, as an alumni member) Dino Mignon (suspended for life for missing a Tomcat Tournament without calling to cancel) and Michael Jaworiwsky (active player) "I am very happy to be back up with the big club, I find it a bit quicker than I recall, but I will make adjustments, and try to keep up" Billy Meeke had indicated on his first night back. Welcome back home Spanky, great to have you back in the Windsor Tomcat fold.

What If ?

36 Players including the Captains, that is 9 players per Team, should the Tomcats be considering a 5 team Tournament instead of just 4...maybe the time has come

Windsor -AP- Getting a fifth Captain would not be a problem, and getting a 5th goalie, is as easy as one phone call or one email, (Enter the Danish, Rob Daniesh) "I would love to play", says Daniesh.

The 36 players this year are a bit of an anomaly. "We have never had so many players for a tournament, ever", states Coordinator Jaworiwsky. The Tomcats this year, anticipating a poorer turnout for the tournament (one never knows if guys will be going away, injuries and whether or not past players will return to play(Eagle, Beep)) recruited 3 brand new show case players. (Joe Antoun, Jamie Lamb and James Hollohazy) Out of the three only one is unable to play, James 'the Kamikaze' Hollohazy. Two other regular members, who have played in the past are unable to play, they are Joe 'Ogie' Costa and Danny 'Mez' Mesman. "If Ogie and Mez wanted to play, then Antoun and Lamb would not have been allowed to play", indicates a stern Steven Jaworiwsky and adds, "But knowing what we know, guys like Killer and May Day are in at this time, but their participation is 50-50 due to travel plans that may keep them from playing, they both told me, have, who ever picks me, in the final round, this way I don't effect there team in a negative way". Jaworiwsky stated.

For this year, the tournament will stay at 4 teams, but who knows maybe next year and years to come, it will grow to 5, 6 10 teams...played out during a whole weekend.

"When you start adding a whole bunch of teams, I think you lose the intimacy that the tournament brings, my favourite part of the whole tournament is still the full Tomcat Team picture, I would like to just play one game, take the full Tomcat team picture and then start drinking beer!" a smiling Jaworiwsky concludes.

"An email will go out to all those that signed up, just to confirm if they are in". States new comer to the coordinating part Andy 'Doc' Brewin. The draft goes January 14, and numbers wise and players wise the Tomcat Tournament Coordinators, Brewin and Jaworiwsky want to make sure everything and they mean EVERYTHING is good to go and accurate before the draft.

For Fun, This Is What a 5 Team Tournament Would Look Like :

- 8:30 A vs. B
- 9:00 C vs. D
- 9:30 FULL TOMCAT TEAM PICTURE
- 10:00 E vs. A
- 10:30 B vs. C
- 11:00 D vs. E
- 11:30 A vs. C
- 12:00 E vs. B
- 12:30 B vs. D
- 1:00 D vs. A
- 1:30 C vs. E
