Not much needs to be written in this issue of the St. Felix, the Captains have made their selections and according to the analysis's, all four teams have great depth and 'the Insiders' are saying it is a crap shoot and any one of the four teams could make it into the final....
Good luck to all the teams involved!

The tournament is about to begin, the players, media and the fans will be watching. "I know I am very excited," stated a smiling Sammy Salaris and continued, "This will be my first Tomcat Tournament ever, and to be selected to the Stevo's Stingray's means a great deal to me and my family, we have waited all our lives for this". Salaris had indicated while weeping openly.

Attention Beep....Team Picture at 10

Kapusta Kow Palace Last year, while the full Tomcat Team picture was being taken, Beep was on an important phone call with the President of the United States of America, Barako Bama, tis year, the St. Felix wants to remind Ellery Oickle that right after the second game, the Tomcats set up for a full Tomcat team picture....so make your phone call after the team picture

The puck is about to be dropped and once again, the tournament organizers, Doc Brewin and Stevo Jaworiwsky remind every one that the tournament is FOR FUN, Yes there are bragging rights, but in the end, who cares who the winner was, as the words to "Tomcats Forever" get belted out at Purples after, it is all about being together and enjoying each other's company and sharing a few laughs.

Steven Jaworiwsky in longest Drought; 14 Years

By Harry Ballsonue

Kapusta Kow Palace -AP- The Webster's Dictionary defines a drought as 'a prolonged period of dryness' OR 'a prolonged or chronic shortage or lack of something'. Well that 'something' in Steven Jaworiwsky's life is a Stanley's Cup. Although he has won five in his 26 year history, he has not won one, since 2000 (won with the Windsor Bruins). "I knew it was a while, but I did not know it was that long, geez, thanks for reminding me Harry, you prick". Jaworiwsky said. New comer, Billy 'Spanky' Meeke is second on the list, with a Stanley's Cup win in 2002 with the Long Shoreman, but he has not played in over ten years, so his situation really does not count. Next up, Dave Dzibela, he last won in 2006 with the Crispy Belarus. After that, David 'Hurricane' Hann, comes in with a victory in 2008 with Crispy's Belarus. We then kind of get into the modern era, with Ken 'Cribzie' Cribley winning with the War Pigs in 2009. All the other guys who have played for a while, all have recent cup wins:

Johnny 'Sunny' Salaris, 2010 with the Polka Kings

George 'The Turk' Metulynsky 2010 with the Polka Kings

Michael 'Hollywood' Jaworiwsky 2010 with the Polka Kings

Paul 'Junior' Poisson' 2011 with Rocky's Wings

Louis 'The Rake' Koenigsberger, 2012 with the May Day Marauders

Nick 'May Day' Lelyk 2012, with the May Day Marauders

Anthony 'Bulldog' Meloche 2012 with the May Day Marauders

Ray 'Razor' MacDonell 2012 with the May Day Marauders

The you have winners such as Mike 'the Falcon' Menzel who won last year and also in previous years 2009 and 2008.

Paul 'Sparky' Renaud too, as won last year and in 2008 and in 2007.

I wanted to cover long term guys who had not won or have not won for a while and the biggest drought goes to Steven Jaworiwsky.

Interestingly enough, Mike 'Lovie' Edgar, who has been playing for a while, has never won a Stanley's Cup at all. "I am aware, I am aware", Edgar had indicated when I had asked him about it, but he has only been with the Tomcats lineup since January 2007 (January 23, 2007 to be exact) so that is only 7 years....nothing like Stevo with 14.

Bulldog and Chevy Can Make it 8 this Year!

Windsor Ontario -AP- Both Bulldog Meloche and Chevy Sczewczuk have 7 Stanley Cups. Both have a chance to make it 8 this year. In with 6 Cups is Chris Girard and Jeff Jamieson (both no longer in the league) but Paul Renaud who still is could get a 7th Stanley's Cup. Then with 5 Mark Jennings, Mike Menzel, Steven Jaworiwsky and Louis Koenigsberger. Bob Skoretz has 5 as well but he is no longer an active member. Coming in at 4 cups, Chad Comartin, Paul Poisson, Barry Morris and Gerald Finnerty. "It certainly would be nice to make it five cups" indicated Chad Comartin. "I don't think you go in thinking, OK if I win today that will be 7 Stanley's Cups for me, you go in to have fun and of course win...but it is a team game and you want to win as a team. Maybe a few weeks later, you may think to yourself yeah, wow, that is such and such cups for me....but it's about winning for your team as a team", indicated Paul Renaud and then added, "and of course about getting laid after".

Selection Order and How You End Up in the Tournament

Windsor -AP- Snowpants asked an interesting question the other day, 'is there a good spot to be in the picking order, meaning does one spot in the draft better than another'? The St. Felix investigated and it makes no difference where you are in the order of the draft, for example:

Team That Won	What Position they had Selected in
May Day Marauders	First
Chevy Sharks	2nd
Crispy's Belarus	3rd
Cribzies War Picks	4th
Hollywoods Polka Kings	3rd
Rocky's Chaos	3rd

So you see, it does not matter where you select in the draft although from the smattering of samples as shown above, it looks like being third pick does help.

No Hockey on the Tuesday After the Tournament !

4 more jackets delivered that makes 42 "Nobody wants Jackets Stevie, nobody wants jackets"

Johnny 'The Mayor' Matuiska ex Tomcat

Windsor -AP- Many, many.many moons ago, Steve Jaworiwsky thought it would be a good idea to get a stadium jacket for the Tomcats. That year, he ordered 24 jackets....(even though Johnny Matuiska said nobody wanted jackets) This past year, marking the 25th anniversary of the Tomcats, Jaworiwsky ordered a record 38 jackets. "It was the largest order of jackets we have ever had...more so then the varsity jackets and the light black jacket". Jaworiwsky had indicated.

With three new Part Time Tomcats, and one new full time player (Spanky) Jaworiwsky thought it would be nice to see if they wanted a jacket. "I was just thinking, maybe they would want a jacket, I was thinking Spanky for sure, cuz he is an old Tomcat and has some jackets from the past, but I was very pleasantly taken back, when the part times asked for one". a jubilant Jaworiwsky stated. So the Tomcats ordered 4 jackets, and the cost to the player on this jacket was $40.

"Hey I wore mine of the first night and got laid", indicated a beaming Jamie 'Sheep-Dog' Lamb. "I wore mine on the very first night I got it and I got laid" stated a smiling James 'Kamikaze' Hollazy. The jacket is magical, only good things happen to you when, you wear your Tomcat 25th anniversary jacket.
